11.4.5 Period of Activity of the Corporate Body

CORE ELEMENT

Period of activity of the corporate body is a core element when needed to distinguish a corporate body from another corporate body with the same name.

11.4.5.1 Scope

Period of activity of the corporate body ▼ is a date or range of dates indicative of the period in which a corporate body was active.

11.4.5.2 Sources of Information

Take information on period of activity of the corporate body from any source.

11.4.5.3 Recording Period of Activity of the Corporate Body

If a corporate body’s date of establishment and date of termination are both unknown, record a date or range of dates indicative of the corporate body’s period of activity. Apply the basic instructions on recording dates associated with corporate bodies at 11.4.1.

EXAMPLE
1810–1818

approximately 1700

If it is not possible to establish specific years of activity, record the century or centuries in which the corporate body was active.

EXAMPLE

19th century

16th century–17th century

11.13.1.5 Date Associated with the Body

Add a date or dates associated with the body (see 11.4.3–11.4.5) if needed to distinguish one access point from another when the following elements are not available:

place (see 11.13.1.3)

associated institution (see 11.13.1.4).

EXAMPLE

[existing examples unchanged; two new examples below added at the end of the example box]
