Subject: Terms of reference for the JSC Examples Editor

Related documents

This document supersedes 6JSC/Chair/2 (RDA Examples Group: Terms of reference).

Background

The JSC appointed the RDA Examples Group 3 in 2012 to support the development of examples in RDA: Resource Description and Access. Specifically, the group was tasked to develop contextual examples in RDA and complete examples in RDA and related products.

In 2014, 6JSC/Policy/4 set out general terms of reference applicable to all JSC Working Groups. The JSC has reviewed the need for a working group for examples, taking into account a number of factors.

While RDA was being developed, a group of people was needed to collect the large number of examples needed for the many chapters in each half of RDA. That phase of development is now over, and the resulting corpus of RDA examples requires curation rather than collection.

The Fast Track process set out in 6JSC/Policy/1 is designed for JSC constituency responses to proposed changes to RDA examples.

The JSC expects examples to be a significant component of translations and other internationalization aspects of RDA in the next few years. This will require the coordination of multiple aspects of examples, such as translation, localization, and contextualization, interacting ad hoc with national and international language and cataloguing experts, and would be best carried out by an individual rather than a group.

The JSC continues to expect examples to appear in technical documentation and other future RDA products.

The JSC has decided that the development of RDA examples should be supported by a non-executive post of "Examples Editor", and has terminated the work of the RDA Examples Group.

The post of Examples Editor is honorary and non-executive. The term of office is 2 years, and is renewable by agreement of the JSC.
