Subject: Proposed revisions for medium of performance (RDA 6.15.1, 6.28.1.9, 6.28.1.10, and Appendix E.1.1)---follow-up

Background

During the discussion of 6JSC/Music/3 at the JSC meeting on November 6, 2013, the RDA Music Joint Working Group (RMJWG) was asked to consider the following issues:

2. The wording of instructions in 6.15.1.3 for recording the number of parts for a particular instrument or voice and for recording the number of players when the term percussion is used.
3. The appropriateness of plural terms for instruments appearing in the list of instruments in 6.15.1.5.
4. An alternative to 6.28.1.9.1 to not apply some or any of the exceptions for adding medium of performance to an authorized access point representing a musical work.
5. Revisions to the language of the instructions at 6.28.1.9.2 and 6.28.1.9.3 to mirror the language approved by the JSC in the 1st paragraph of 6.28.1.9.1.
6. Correction of the preferred title in the Krebs authorized access point example in 6.28.1.9.4.
7. Whether any of the preferred titles in the examples in 6.28.1.9.1 require an initial article.

All proposals are based on the text agreed to at the JSC meeting on November 6, 2013.

Recommendations

Issue 1
A guide or table of contents for using 6.15 to record medium of performance.

Discussion
RMJWG believes adapting the first sentence of 6.15.1.3 to include a guide, using the model provided by 6.23.2.10, would be the best solution. The remainder of 6.15.1.3 would be moved to a new instruction with the title General Guidelines, numbered as 6.15.1.4. This would also necessitate a re-numbering of the instructions and references in 6.15 and to references in some isolated locations in 6.28.1.9.1. Changes to numbering are summarized below, but are also included in the full proposal for 6JSC/Music/3/follow-up appended to this communication. The removal of the word “specifically” in the first sentence of proposed 6.15.1.4 (originally found in 6.15.1.3) is intentional. RMJWG felt the use of this word was redundant, since the goal of 6.15 is to record the medium of performance as specifically as possible. The proposed text for the new instruction (6.15.1.4 General Guidelines) also includes changes discussed in follow-up issue 2.

Issue 2
The wording of instructions in 6.15.1.3 for recording the number of parts for a particular instrument or voice and for recording the number of players when the term percussion is used.

Discussion
RMJWG favors an approach where the number of percussion players is framed as an exception to the instruction for recording the number of parts for a particular instrument or voice. In general, the number of parts for an individual instrument equals the number of players needed to perform the music. This is not the case when the term percussion is used. It is entirely possible, and even likely, that 3 players are playing more than 3 parts. It represents a special case where the number of players is more important than the number of parts and is a situation that is encountered nowhere else in music.

This follow-up also changes the awkward phrase “record the appropriate numeral for the number of parts” to “record the number of parts.”

Because of changes proposed in issue 1 above, this exception would be part of a new 6.15.1.4. The proposed text below uses as its basis the text as it was in 6JSC/Music/3 when it was part of 6.15.1.3.

Issue 3

The appropriateness of plural terms for instruments appearing in the list of instruments in 6.15.1.5.

Discussion

The JSC was concerned with plural terms in the list of instruments in 6JSC/Music/3 6.15.1.5, specifically with the terms “kettle drums or timpani” and “viols,” especially since all the other terms in the list are in the singular.

RMJWG believes it was never the intention of the instruction to limit the application to singular terms. The title of the instruction is a hold-over from AACR2, when there were three ways to record the medium of performance for instrumental music intended for one performer to a part: as standard combinations of instruments (21.30B3), as individual instruments (21.30B4), or as groups of instruments (21.30B5), when needed to reduce the number of elements to 3 or less. Naming the 21.30B4 rule “Individual Instruments” in AACR2 was a way to distinguish it from the other two rules.

With the removal of standard combinations and groups of instruments from 6.15, there is no longer a reason to continue with the name of the instruction as “Individual Instruments” especially since the name of the instruction has the possibility of causing confusion. RMJWG proposes that the instruction name be changed to “Instruments” and that kettle drums and timpani remain in the list.

However RMJWG is concerned about both the terms “viol” and “viols” remaining in the list because 6JSC/Music/3 now allows for the recording of pitch and range for instruments, with an alternative to omit. This means that viols of different sizes (an indication of range) could each be recorded. With that being the case, the language in parenthesis following viol and viols no longer makes sense. RMJWG proposes that viol and viols be removed from the list. If agencies would like to continue the former practice of not naming the size of viol, this would be better addressed as an agency policy and not as an exceptional practice in RDA.

Finally, a small editorial correction has been made. The word “or” should be italicized in the phrase “not bass viol or gamba.” It is currently without italics in the RDA Toolkit.

6.15.1.5 Individual Instruments 6.15.1.6 Instruments

When recording an individual type names of instruments, use a term in a language preferred by the agency creating the data whenever possible. Use the following list of terms as a guide:

cello or violoncello
cor anglais or English horn
double bass (not bass viol or contrabass)
double bassoon or contrabassoon harpsichord (not cembalo or virginal)
horn (not French horn) kettle drums or timpani
piano (not fortepiano or pianoforte) viol (for sizes of viola da gamba other than bass)
viola da gamba (not bass viol or gamba)
viols (for viols of different sizes)

When alternatives are given, choose a term and use it consistently.

Issue 4
An alternative to 6.28.1.9.1 to not apply some or any of the exceptions for adding medium of performance to an authorized access point representing a musical work.

Issue 6
Correction of the preferred title in the Krebs authorized access point example in 6.28.1.9.4.

Discussion
RMJWG noticed the Krebs example in 6.28.1.9.4 has an incorrect preferred title. Under AACR2, such a title would have been correct according to 25.29C1. In RDA there are no special cases for Trio sonatas. Since the original title was Trios, that should be the preferred title according to RDA.

Issue 7
Whether any of the preferred titles in the examples in 6.28.1.9 and 6.28.1.10 require an initial article.

Discussion
RMJWG has examined the examples in 6.28.1.9 and 6.28.1.10 in 6JSC/Music/3 and has not found any preferred titles that require initial articles.

Appendix
Because the resolution of issue 1 involves renumbering of instructions and references, this follow-up also includes the complete text of 6.15, 6.28.1.9, and 6.28.1.10 as revised by JSC at the November 6, 2013 meeting, with revisions proposed by RMJWG in this follow-up, based on the clean text of 6JSC/Music/3. Revisions proposed by RMJWG are highlighted in yellow; revisions accepted by JSC, but that differed from the clean text of 6JSC/Music/3 are in aqua.
